

Chief Executive Officer

Since 1971, the Ontario Provincial Police Association Credit Union (“OPPA”) has focused on meeting the financial needs of the OPP community – with products, services, advice and financial planning geared to the lives and unique circumstances of police officers, policing retirees, civilian members and their families.

From modest beginnings, the OPPA Credit Union has grown to 8,000 members and over $200 million in assets. The OPPA Credit Union offers a full range of personal banking services – from financial planning, savings and chequing accounts to loans, mortgages, RRSPs and more.

Our focus is to grow both our asset and membership base by providing value added advice through a range of products and quality services tailored to our member needs. Operating from our office in Barrie, Ontario our members are served by phone, email, Internet, smart phone banking and a vast network of ATMs.

DEFINE THE FUTURE

As the ideal candidate and our new Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) you are a dynamic and visionary leader who excels at building relationships and growing an asset base in a member-driven organization. In addition, you will be known for your ability to embrace innovation, introduce technology and leading practices while maintaining a commitment to operational excellence through staff engagement.

Based on the strategic direction provided by the Board of Directors, the CEO will be accountable for leading the achievement of the credit union business plan and financial plan. This will include managing all strategies necessary to attain the goals and objectives of the credit union as established by the Board and member shareholders in accordance with our organizational By-Laws and the Act.

In this role you will enhance relationships with our existing members and grow our base by increasing visibility through a range of engagement strategies. With your senior team and staff as key participants you will lead the achievement of the OPPA Credit Union’s success strategies by ensuring measurable operational results in a fiscally responsible fashion.
